"Executive search at Canny, Bowen? Perseverance."

David Peasback
Chairman

54th Year in
Executive Search

Founded in New York City in 1954 by partners of two premier global strategy consulting firms, Canny, Bowen is the oldest, privately held senior management executive search firm in the United States. Our consultative approach, prior management experience in industry and at large international search firms, and a systematic, hands-on process enable us to provide outstanding service to clients. We recruit globally for positions based in North America.

Our Managing Directors have consulted to the Boards, CEOs and human resources executives of highly respected multinational corporations which include IBM, Danaher, Pfizer, Royal Dutch/Shell, Campbell Soup, Bechtel, Lenovo, GE, The Hartford, Bristol-Myers Squibb, and others recognized by PriceWaterhouse-Coopers' "Most Respected Companies" survey of US and Worldwide CEOs. Clients also include startup and private companies, partnerships, private equity firms, and the US subsidiaries of Asian and European corporations.

From our teaming approach which maximizes candidate flow, Canny, Bowen remains the firm of choice for informed, demanding clients who value immediate access to and knowledgeable assessment of global executives. We are committed to diversity on client search assignments.

Maximize the senior management talent pool. Minimize time to fill. Close. Perseverance at Canny, Bowen.
